COURSE OVERVIEW

This course addresses one of today's key educational challenges — student absenteeism and disengagement. It provides teachers and school staff with effective strategies to maintain students' motivation, strengthen the school–student relationship, and create a learning environment that promotes regular attendance and participation. Through interactive workshops, case studies, and group reflection, participants will learn how to identify risk factors early and apply preventive, inclusive, and motivational approaches to keep students connected to their learning journey.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- To understand the causes and effects of absenteeism in different school contexts.
- To develop strategies for increasing student engagement and motivation.
- To identify early warning signs and intervene proactively.
- To strengthen communication and trust between teachers, students, and families.
- To promote inclusion and belonging as keys to attendance and learning.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completing this course, participants will be able to:

- Participants will be able to recognize and address the main factors contributing to absenteeism.
- They will apply practical strategies to improve attendance and classroom participation.
